

A photograph of a long, arched stone tunnel. The walls and ceiling are made of rough-hewn stone, creating a series of repeating arches that recede into the distance. A staircase of stone steps leads up the center of the tunnel towards a bright, glowing light at the far end, which appears to be an open doorway or a large window. The overall atmosphere is one of hope and spiritual journey.

Monthly Focus Pages

How to use this journal

- ♦ Spend some time at the beginning of each month praying about your Master Plan and asking the Holy Spirit to show you what the next few steps are on the journey.
- ♦ Key verses: Note any scriptures which God is highlighting to you as significant for this month.
- ♦ Focus areas: Within your overarching goals, what are some specific aspects that God is pinpointing for you to hone in on this month?
- ♦ Areas of Adjustment or Re-alignment: Are there any places where you may have gotten off track or simply can be more focused by making a few minor changes? It's possible you may feel that you are listing the same thing every month. That's alright. Even small progress is progress, and you cannot improve without being aware and facing the challenges head on. Ask the Spirit to give you strategy in these areas.
- ♦ Action Steps: What are some measurable things you can do to advance your progress towards the goals that you and God are working towards this month? These should be small, manageable activities that will move you forward but that are well within your capability to achieve.
- ♦ Journal: Record any new information or revelation the Lord gives you during this prayer time or even reflections / observations you have.
- ♦ This journal should serve as a reference guide throughout the year to help you stay the course and supplement your daily devotional times.

When He has brought out all His own, He goes on ahead of them, and His sheep follow Him because they know His voice. But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger's voice. John 10:4-5

I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his Master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything I have learned from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you, so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in My name the Father will give you.

John 15:15-16

Then the Lord will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a glow of flaming fire by night; over everything the glory will be a canopy. It will be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding place from the storm and the rain. Isa 4:5-6

Then those who feared the Lord talked with each other, and the Lord listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in

His presence concerning those who feared the Lord and honored His name. “On the day when I act,” says the Lord Almighty, “they will be My treasured possession. I will spare them, just as a father has compassion and spares his son who serves him. And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who fear God and those who do not.” Malachi 3:16-18
